Did you know...?

211 South Sampson Street

Pictured below is a very early bakery and general store at 211 South Sampson Street in Tremont that was run by William and Cresencia Buchele. The business operated from 1868-1893. Posing in the 1883 photo is William (Pappa) and daughters Lizzie and Mayme. They had 15 children in total. However, three children died at very young ages, which sadly, was not unusual at that time.

William's family had emigrated from Germany and settled in Peoria. William served in the Civil War in Co. E of the 82nd Infantry at Gettysburg, along with his brother, Anton. At Gettysburg, 19 year-old Anton was killed, and William was wounded.

He and Cresencia, whose family also emigrated from Germany, married in 1868 in Pekin, moved to Tremont, and opened their store.

The store was located where the Tremont Village Hall has been since 1964. How that area has changed!
